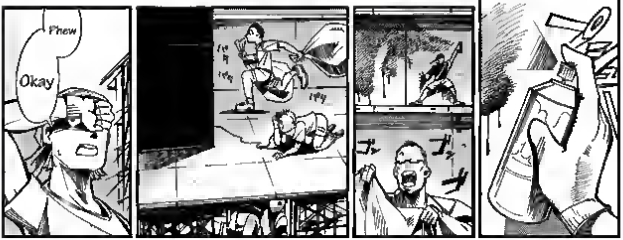
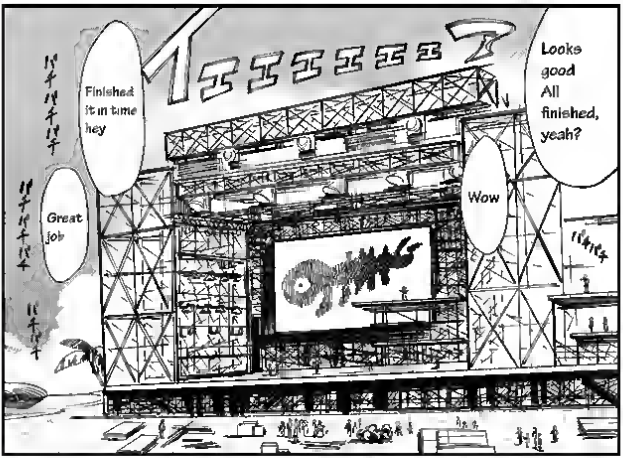
Daydream Attractor

小林銅蟲



Phew
Okay



Finished it in time hey
Great job
Looks good All finished, yeah?
Wow

All that's left now is for someone to get rid of the dead whale before the opening
N N No way
Anyone want anything from the convenience store?
Oden

Bang!

Gyro, gyro
Gyro gyro
It's got me excited for some reason
The smell is horrendous
As you can see, we're at the scene now
Who the hell are we?
Who are you?
アホルト ニュース
It looks like some random bloke has decided to do an on-the-spot report
It's like some kind of concept has been destroyed again

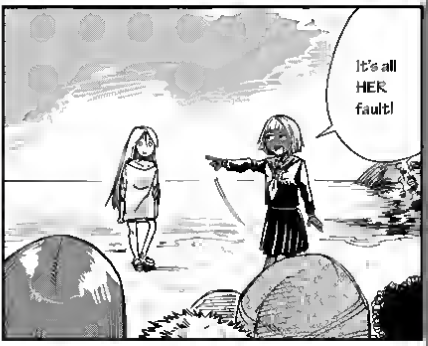
The whale blew up, and humans came flying out of its...
I'm telling you I saw it
Is that right?
Stop following me.
Quiz! Do you know the answer?
Coupled with that, I'm plagued by nagging fools
My name is Wile, and I'm on a journey

Day dawns. Day dawns. Day dawns. Day dawns. Day begins to dawn



My dawn was the night following dawn.

but a long,time ago, this is where the World Tree was created

It's sunk to the bottom of the sea now.

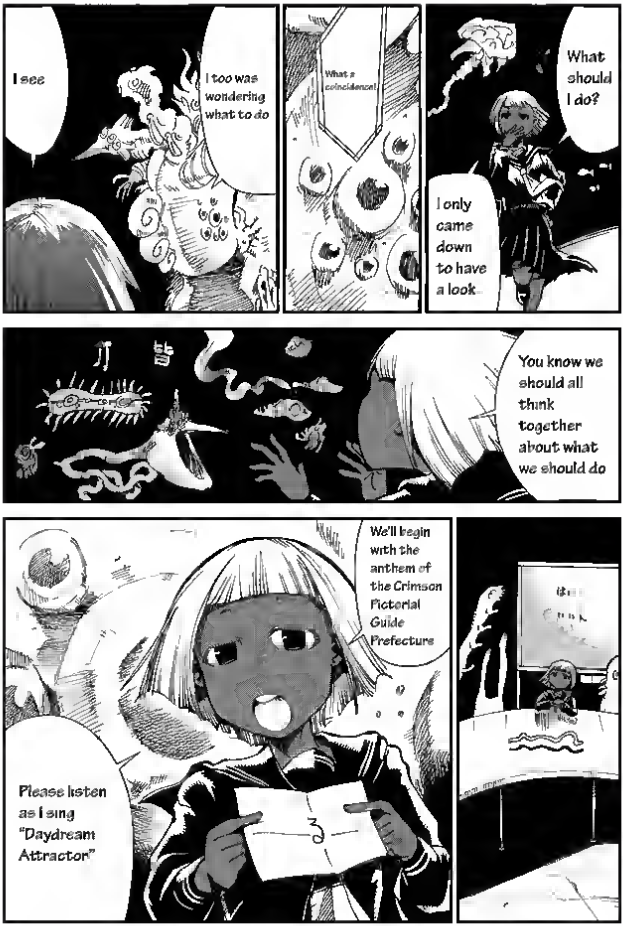
Dear me!
②
①
It was formed by pouring the source elements of the World Tree into a fissure and letting them harden.
It's taken root...



I see
I too was wondering what to do
What a coincidence!
What should I do?
I only came down to have a look
You know we should all think together about what we should do
We'll begin with the anthem of the Crimson Pictorial Guide Prefecture
Please listen as I sing "Daydream Attractor"

♪ Resembling a sea of narrow veins is what I see.
They are our future

Here over there
The daydream

The familiar Minotaur
that's ne'er been seen.

Laid down,
It stands up.
A body with 170 regular faces.

Dance with maggots

But the space whales had become so highly intelligent that they thought too much about their existence and self. The result was that their poor spiritual state spread exponentially among them, and their species faced crisis

Thereupon, they set out on a pilgrimage of 8^8 places in space in order to attain spiritual enlightenment.

Uhh, no thanks
Right then. How would you like to buy one of these teeny tiny cats?

So you see...
Several tens of millions of years ago, some whales built a civilization more advanced than today's humanity. Then, utilizing their technological capability, they launched into space in search of new lands of prosperity.

I said no.
You know they're only three thousand nine hundred and fifty yen

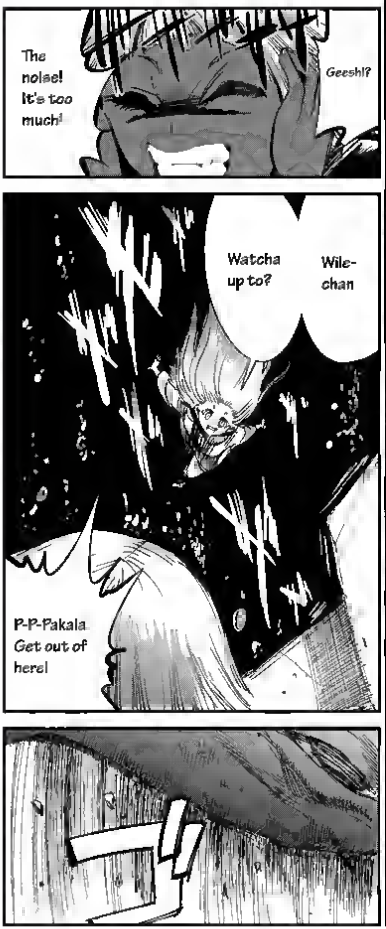
Once sunk, A river rose A river Burned at the stake
Oh my! Would you look at that.
We'll die.
No, no
That's impossible
C'mon everyone. Let's all go have a look.
You'll be fine.
That's Wile's verse for sure!

All you have to do is to dispel such notions

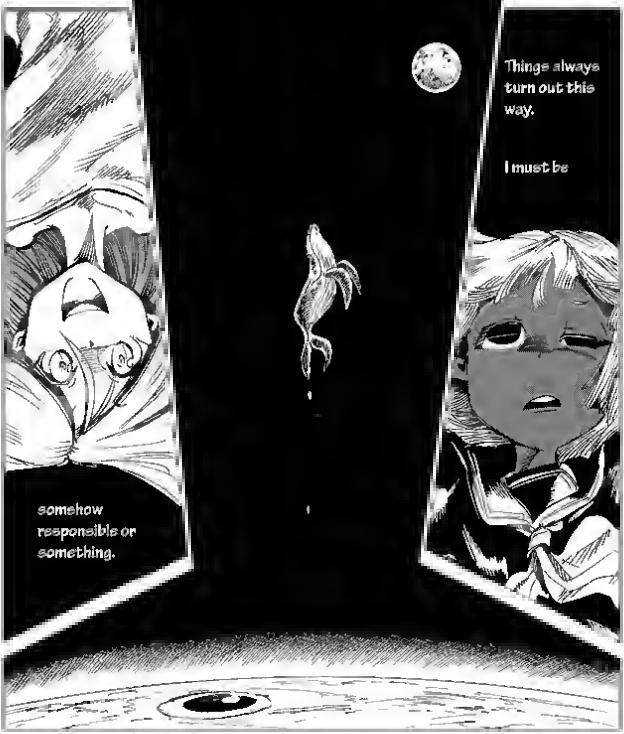
Lose your bodily form, turn into sound, and you should be to go faster than in air.
I'm so clever!
Let's go everyone.

Maybe it's still in two minds
It's huge!
Your fellow whales are all waiting in space you know
Come home with me
Just because it doesn't speak,
it doesn't mean it can't.
"HOTOTOGISU"



The noise! It's too much!
Geesh!?
Watcha up to?
Wile-chan
P-P-Pakala Get out of here!

What the!



Things always turn out this way.
I must be somehow responsible or something.

That's how I see it...
